

Be a Christmas Angel for a family this holiday season

Each year, HumanKind provides Christmas for our families who are facing challenging times and crisis. At this time of year many of the families are faced with difficult decisions to stay the course to financial stability and wellness, or sacrifice and make sure their children feel the magic of the holiday.

While our staff continue to work with these parents to achieve their goals, you can make sure this holiday season is still full of magic and joy. HumanKind's Christmas Angels program is unique in the focus to empower the parents and restore their pride. Gifts are given directly to the parents along with wrapping paper, ribbons, tape, gift tags and everything needed to wrap the gifts with their own love. Then they give the gifts to their children on Christmas morning, experiencing a bit of magic themselves. A priceless gift to share in the season of giving.

As you head off with your own Christmas list, please consider making room to ease the worry of another parent who wants to provide Christmas for their child.

Here's a note from a Christmas Angel family recipient:

Thank you for sponsoring our family for the Christmas holiday. At the time we were experiencing tremendous financial hardship and had no way to provide Christmas to our children on our own. You greatly surprised us with the multitude of gifts and outpouring of love and holiday spirit. You made a Christmas miracle happen for our family! There were so many wonderful toys for the children. They were excited and delighted as they opened gifts Christmas morning. Without your generosity and support, Christmas would have never happened for our family. Thank you so much for all of your help, it is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

The Wall
